Your Privacy Rights

This section explains why your information is collected and how it is used, shared and protected. It also explains how you can access your personal information.

The use of the singular (such as primary caregiver) also includes plural as the context requires. The personal information you provide on this form is collected under the authority of the Department of Employment and Social Development Act (DESDA), the Canada Disability Savings Act (CDSA) and the Income Tax Act (ITA) for the purposes of determining eligibility for a Canada Disability Savings Grant (grant) or Canada Disability Savings Bond (bond) for the current year (if applicable) and if there are any unused grant and/or bond entitlements from prior years, to calculate amounts payable and to administer the grant and bond including for the years in which the beneficiary is or was 18 years of age or under. Information may be used by and shared between Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC), the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), and the issuer for the administration of the CDSA and the ITA.

The Social Insurance Number (SIN) is collected under the authority of the CDSA and the ITA in accordance with the Treasury Board Secretariat Directive on Social Insurance Number. The SIN will be used as a file identifier and to ensure an individual's exact identification so that the beneficiary's eligibility for the Disability Tax Credit (DTC), residency and family income can be verified for the purposes of determining whether a grant or a bond may be paid. While eligibility for the DTC may be verified, information contained within the Disability Tax Credit Certificate (i.e., the nature of the beneficiary's disability) will not be collected, used nor disclosed.

Personal information on the primary caregiver is used to verify their identity in the Social Insurance Registry in order to determine the correct RDSP and for the purposes of determining the amount of grant and/or bond for the years in which the beneficiary is/was 18 years of age or under.

Personal information on the primary caregiver is also used to determine the family income for a particular year, as well as to validate the beneficiary's residency and eligibility for the DTC. Family income for any given year is based on taxpayer information submitted two years prior (for example, family income for determining 2020 bond entitlement is based on the 2018 tax year). Your taxpayer information held by the CRA is used to determine the family income as well as validate the beneficiary's Disability Tax Credit eligibility and the beneficiary's residency.

As the beneficiary may be eligible for unused grant and bond entitlements from the previous ten years, the personal and taxpayer information of the primary caregiver is used to determine eligibility for any year in which the beneficiary was 18 years of age or under. As a result, the use and sharing of personal and taxpayer information may extend as far back as twelve years (the previous ten years for unused grant and bond entitlements, plus two years prior for family income based on income tax records).

Though you, as a primary caregiver who does not represent an agency, are not obligated to provide any personal information, refusal to do so, may result in ESDC being unable to determine eligibility for the full amount of grant or bond in respect of the beneficiary.

The personal information you provide may be used by and shared between the following parties for the administration of the CDSA and the ITA: ESDC, the CRA, the RDSP provider and its agents, and between RDSP providers when transferring RDSP assets.

Information may be used and/or disclosed by ESDC for policy analysis, research and/or evaluation purposes. Information may also be disclosed to Statistics Canada for research and statistical purposes. However, these additional uses and/or disclosures of your personal information will never result in an administrative decision being made, (such as a decision on the beneficiary's entitlement to a grant and/or a bond).

Once under the control of ESDC, your personal information is administered in accordance with the DESDA, the ITA, the CDSA, the Privacy Act, and all other applicable laws. You have the right to access and request correction to, your personal information, which is described in Personal Information Bank "ESDC PPU 038". Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication entitled Info Source, which is available at Canada Centre. You have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada if you have concerns about the handling of your personal information.

Definitions

Beneficiary: The individual who will receive payments from the RDSP.

Disability Tax Credit (DTC): A non-refundable tax credit available to individuals who, in a given taxation year, have one or more severe and prolonged impairments in physical or mental functions. A medical practitioner, using the appropriate form, must certify the effects of the impairment and the Canada Revenue Agency must approve the application. See the Income Tax Act, section 118.3 for further details.

These definitions are provided for your information only and do not constitute legal definitions.

In the event of a discrepancy, the legal definitions found in the Canada Disability Savings Act, and the Income Tax Act prevail.

Family Income: Family income is used to determine the amount of grant and bond a beneficiary is eligible for and is generally established from the information of the primary caregiver who received the first Canada Child Benefit (CCB) payment of the year (usually in January). There are circumstances where the information of the primary caregiver who is currently receiving the CCB is used instead (if this is different from the primary caregiver who received the CCTB for January) – please identify both individuals if this applies. ESDC uses the family income that is most beneficial to the beneficiary to determine the amount of grant and bond.

Holder: Is an individual, agency, department or institution that opens an RDSP, names a beneficiary and may authorize or make deposits (contributions) on behalf of the designated beneficiary into the RDSP. The plan holder may be the beneficiary provided the beneficiary is of the age of majority and has legal capacity to sign (or provide consent in an accepted manner to the issuer) for themselves.

Issuer: A corporation authorized to offer the RDSP to the public. The issuer opens an RDSP for the holder on behalf of a designated beneficiary and handles related administrative matters.

Primary Caregiver: For the purpose of the grant and bond, the primary caregiver is/ are the person(s) eligible for the Canada Child Benefit (CCB) and whose name appears on the CCB payments. Alternately, it is the department, agency or institution that receives the allowance payable under the Children's Special Allowances Act. In cases of joint custody or a change in custody, there may be more than one primary caregiver for any given year(s) or part thereof. Similarly, there may be circumstances where the beneficiary was in the care of a department, agency, or institution for any given year(s) or part thereof.
